

Name _____

Justice Unveiled

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What kind of cases did Maya Davis usually take on?
 - A. Only cases with physical evidence
 - B. Challenging cases where justice was at stake
 - C. Cases involving rich clients
 - D. Cases with straightforward solutions

2. What motivated Maya to take on Alex Martinez's case pro bono?
 - A. She was intrigued by the challenge.
 - B. Alex was a wealthy client.
 - C. She was forced to take the case.
 - D. She didn't want to help Alex.

3. What was the main piece of evidence that led to Alex's conviction?
 - A. Witness testimony
 - B. Fingerprint evidence
 - C. DNA evidence
 - D. Video footage

4. Why did Maya visit Alex in prison?
 - A. To gather more evidence against them
 - B. To listen to Alex's side of the story and discuss the case
 - C. To tell Alex that they had no hope of winning
 - D. To intimidate Alex into confessing

5. What challenges did Maya face while working on Alex's case?
 - A. The prosecution's refusal to cooperate
 - B. Lack of evidence supporting Alex's alibi
 - C. Maya's lack of experience as a lawyer
 - D. A judge who readily considered the new evidence

