

Name _____

Do Kangaroos Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of relationship do kangaroos have with birds like magpies?
 - a) Mutualism
 - b) Predation
 - c) Parasitism
 - d) Commensalism

2. How do kangaroos help plants?
 - a) By pollinating flowers
 - b) By providing seeds
 - c) By grazing on vegetation
 - d) By eating harmful insects

3. What is parasitism?
 - a) When one species benefits and the other is harmed
 - b) When both species benefit
 - c) When neither species benefits
 - d) When both species are harmed

4. Why do some birds follow kangaroos?
 - a) To find water
 - b) To eat insects stirred by the kangaroo's movement
 - c) To protect kangaroos from predators
 - d) To help kangaroos find food

5. Which relationship harms the kangaroo?
 - a) Commensalism
 - b) Mutualism
 - c) Parasitism
 - d) Cooperation

