

Name _____

Karaoke Reunion

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The karaoke competition at the bar allows the friends to reunite and perform together as a team. Through their performance, they relive old memories and share a special moment, which strengthens their bonds and rekindles their friendships.
2. Jessica and David's feelings for each other resurface because music has a way of bringing out emotions and memories. Singing together on stage rekindles the romantic connection they once had and reminds them of the special moments they shared.
3. After their performance, the friends likely felt a sense of joy, nostalgia, and pride in their friendship. They may have also felt a renewed sense of camaraderie and a deeper appreciation for their shared history.
4. "Bringing the magic back" in the context of the story likely means recapturing the joy, excitement, and closeness that the friends used to experience when they sang together in the past. It signifies the rekindling of their passion for music and their friendships.

