

Name _____

Lights, Camera, Action: My Journey as a Kid Actor

Short Answer Key

1. The narrator felt excited and nervous when they first auditioned for a TV commercial.
2. The best part of being on set for the TV commercial was getting to eat delicious cereal all day long and making friends with other kid actors.
3. The narrator practiced their lines tirelessly to prepare for a big audition for a TV show role.
4. The narrator learned a lot from the experienced actors, made more friends, and had a great time on set while being on a TV series.
5. The narrator advises kids to believe in themselves, practice their craft, and never be afraid to audition if they dream of becoming actors.

