

Name _____

Kindness Warriors: Standing Up Against Meanness and Hurtfulness

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. (Answers will vary) - Encourage students to share personal experiences of witnessing meanness or hurtfulness and how they responded. Evaluate the outcomes and discuss the importance of standing up against such behavior.
2. (Answers will vary) - Students should provide their own explanation of empathy and discuss its significance in understanding and addressing meanness and hurtfulness.
3. (Answers will vary) - Students should outline the steps they would take to establish an anti-bullying program, including awareness campaigns, educational activities, and support systems.
4. (Answers will vary) - Encourage students to share their personal experiences of standing up for someone and describe their feelings and the positive impact it had on the situation. Discuss the importance of being an ally.

