

Name _____

Koi Fish and Their Relationships with Other Species

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is an example of a mutualistic relationship for koi fish?
 - a) Koi fish eating algae
 - b) Koi fish hiding from predators
 - c) Cleaner fish eating parasites off koi
 - d) Koi fish swimming in schools

2. How do plants, like water lilies, help koi fish?
 - a) By giving them food to eat
 - b) By providing shade and protection
 - c) By cleaning parasites off their skin
 - d) By keeping predators away

3. What is a parasitic relationship involving koi fish?
 - a) Koi fish eating duckweed
 - b) Birds hunting koi fish
 - c) Fish lice feeding on koi
 - d) Koi fish swimming with snails

4. What is the main danger predators pose to koi fish?
 - a) Hunting them for food
 - b) Stealing their food
 - c) Spreading diseases to them
 - d) Chasing them out of ponds

5. Why do pond owners introduce cleaner species into koi ponds?
 - a) To give koi friends to play with
 - b) To provide extra food for the koi
 - c) To keep predators away from the pond
 - d) To help keep the koi clean and healthy

