

Name _____

Lab Adventures

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think the poem describes science experiments as a mixture of "chemistry and wonder"?
2. How does inquiry play a powerful role in scientific experiments, as mentioned in the poem?
3. Can you share a personal experience where you felt the magic of discovery, similar to what the poem describes?
4. Why is the lab often seen as a place of learning and exploration, as implied in the poem?

