

Name _____

The Labyrinth of Legends

Short Answer Key

1. The "Guardians of the Lost Treasure" were a pair of towering stone statues. They presented the challenge of a giant game of chess.
2. The magical forest within the labyrinth was enchanting, with trees that whispered secrets and fireflies that danced in harmony with the music of nature. The inhabitants were the "Forest Sprites," tiny creatures with wings like shimmering butterflies.
3. The children overcame the challenges and traps in the labyrinth through teamwork, problem-solving skills, agility, and courage.
4. The Labyrinth's Keeper revealed that the real treasure was not gold or jewels, but the knowledge and friendship they had gained on their journey.
