

Name _____

The Labyrinth of Legends

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Students can choose any encounter they find exciting and provide reasons for their choice.
2. Answers may vary, but should reflect the idea that adventures like this one can change a person's perspective and make them value friendship, knowledge, and courage more.
3. Answers may vary but should include personal qualities like bravery, intelligence, creativity, and teamwork, as well as skills such as problem-solving and navigation.
4. Answers may vary, but students can explain how knowledge can be gained through friendship, as friends share experiences and learn together. Friendship can also provide support and encouragement in acquiring knowledge and facing challenges.

