

Name _____

Land & Livelihood

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would live in the Middle Colonies because the weather was mild and farming was good.
2. Natural resources like oil, water, or good soil help decide where people work and what they do.
3. The South wouldn't have had large plantations, and they might have relied more on fishing or trade.
4. Geography affects where cities are built and what kinds of businesses can succeed.

