

Name _____

Land Lost

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did the Dawes Act do to Native American land?

- A) Gave it all to settlers
- B) Made it larger for tribes
- C) Turned it into national parks
- D) Divided it into allotments for individual families

2. Why was the Dawes Act a problem for Native Americans?

- A) The allotments were too small and leftover land was sold.
- B) They didn't want to farm.
- C) They didn't know how to build houses.
- D) It didn't let them move to new land.

3. What cultural changes did the Dawes Act encourage?

- A) Building more homes
- B) Keeping traditional languages
- C) Wearing European-style clothing
- D) Farming as a community

4. When did the U.S. government end the allotment system?

- A) 1887
- B) 1900
- C) 1934
- D) 1950

5. What is one lasting effect of the Dawes Act?

- A) Tribes gained more land
- B) Native American communities still face challenges today
- C) All tribes became farmers
- D) The land was turned into schools

