

Name _____

Globalization and the Language Puzzle

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is "language borrowing" in the context of globalization?
  - a) The act of lending books written in different languages
  - b) The exchange of words, phrases, and expressions between languages
  - c) A form of language theft
  - d) The process of translating languages for global use

2. Which language has become a global lingua franca due to globalization?
  - a) Mandarin Chinese
  - b) Spanish
  - c) English
  - d) French

3. How does globalization impact lesser-known languages?
  - a) It helps them gain prominence.
  - b) It doesn't have any impact on them.
  - c) It can overshadow and replace them.
  - d) It strengthens their cultural significance.

4. What role have the internet and social media played in spreading languages?
  - a) They have restricted the use of languages to local communities.
  - b) They have made it difficult for people to communicate in different languages.
  - c) They have facilitated the exchange of languages and cultures across borders.
  - d) They have discouraged people from using their native languages.

5. What do language preservation efforts aim to achieve?
  - a) To promote the dominance of English worldwide
  - b) To document and revitalize endangered languages
  - c) To eliminate linguistic diversity
  - d) To encourage the use of dominant languages

