

Name _____

The Secret Language of Dreams

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the realm of dreams described as in the poem?

- a) A world of reality
- b) A place where nothing is possible
- c) A realm where anything is possible
- d) A land of nightmares

2. What are dreams described as in the poem?

- a) Whispers of outer thoughts
- b) Hidden desires and fears
- c) Fantasies with no meaning
- d) Adventures in far-off lands

3. How can dreams be introspective, according to the poem?

- a) By taking us to far-off lands
- b) By being fantastical and exciting
- c) By revealing truths about ourselves
- d) By being mysterious and haunting

4. What is the main message or purpose of the poem regarding dreams?

- a) Dreams are meaningless and should be ignored.
- b) Dreams are just random images with no significance.
- c) Dreams reflect our inner thoughts and emotions.
- d) Dreams are a canvas for painting landscapes.

5. How does the poem encourage us to view the secret language of dreams?

- a) It encourages us to ignore our dreams.
- b) It advises us to share our dreams with others.
- c) It suggests that we embrace and explore our dreams.
- d) It warns us against delving into our subconscious.

