

Name _____

The Secret Language of Dreams

Short Answer Key

1. Dreams are a reflection of our innermost thoughts and emotions.
2. When dreams are introspective, they reveal truths about ourselves that we may not be ready to face.
3. The poem states that in the realm of dreams, anything is possible.
4. Dreams are described as such because they convey messages and feelings from our subconscious minds.
5. The poem characterizes dreams as sometimes fantastical, sometimes introspective, and at other times mysterious, comforting, or haunting.

