

Name _____

Tao Te Ching by Lao Tzu

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the concept of "wu wei" and how it can be applied in modern life, providing examples of its relevance.
2. Explore the symbolism of yin and yang in the Taoist philosophy, considering how the balance of opposites applies to various aspects of life.
3. Reflect on the qualities of sages as described in "Tao Te Ching" and their relevance in contemporary society. How can individuals strive to embody these qualities?
4. Analyze the impact of Lao Tzu's teachings on Chinese culture, philosophy, and spirituality, and consider their potential relevance in a global context.

