

Name _____

Lasting Lessons

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why do Red and Blue Crayons feel overworked?
 - A) They are never used.
 - B) They are used all the time and never get a break.
 - C) They don't like the colors they are.
 - D) They wish they could outline things.

2. What lesson does Duncan learn from his crayons?
 - A) He should always follow the coloring rules.
 - B) The crayons should stop complaining.
 - C) Some colors are more useful than others.
 - D) It's important to listen to others and be fair.

3. How does Duncan solve the problem with his crayons?
 - A) He throws them away and buys new ones.
 - B) He stops coloring for a while.
 - C) He creates a new picture using all the crayons in unique ways.
 - D) He chooses only his favorite crayons to use.

4. Why do adults also enjoy reading this book?
 - A) The story reminds them that everyone deserves appreciation and recognition.
 - B) They like reading about crayons.
 - C) They enjoy coloring.
 - D) It helps them remember their childhood.

5. What makes The Day the Crayons Quit a book that remains popular?
 - A) It is about crayons, which everyone loves.
 - B) It teaches humor, creativity, and fairness in a fun way.
 - C) It only teaches kids how to draw.
 - D) It has the most colors of any book.

