

Name _____

Late-Night Studies

Short Answer Key

1. Homework is described as making a late-night call in the Tanka poem.
2. Study groups and perseverance represent hard work and determination in the poem.
3. According to the poem, the students push through doubts.
4. The treasure mentioned in the poem is knowledge.
5. The poem suggests that knowledge is a treasure worth the toil.

