

Name _____

Laughing Letters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Red Crayon feel overworked?
 - A) It is never used.
 - B) It is used too much, even on holidays.
 - C) Duncan lost it.
 - D) It is too short to hold.

2. What is funny about Blue Crayon's complaint?
 - A) It is tired from coloring too much water.
 - B) It is jealous of Green Crayon.
 - C) It says it is shrinking so much that Duncan won't be able to hold it.
 - D) It refuses to be used for skies.

3. What makes Yellow and Orange Crayon's argument humorous?
 - A) They both think they are the color of the sun, and neither will give up.
 - B) They refuse to be used in Duncan's drawings.
 - C) They both want to be Beige Crayon.
 - D) They write poems about the sun.

4. How does the author make the crayons' complaints funny?
 - A) The crayons talk like real people and exaggerate their problems.
 - B) The story includes jokes about other crayons.
 - C) The author adds silly pictures to the book.
 - D) The crayons only talk to each other, not Duncan.

5. What does Duncan do in response to the crayons' complaints?
 - A) He stops coloring to give them a break.
 - B) He buys a new box of crayons.
 - C) He argues with the crayons.
 - D) He uses them in creative ways, like making a pink dinosaur.

