

Name _____

Laughing Flat

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is Stanley's situation funny from the beginning?
 - a) He turns invisible overnight.
 - b) He wakes up in a different country.
 - c) He grows much taller in one night.
 - d) His parents react as if it's normal.

2. What is one humorous way Stanley uses his flatness?
 - a) He slides under doors.
 - b) He becomes a magician.
 - c) He turns into a robot.
 - d) He flies on an airplane.

3. Why does Arthur find Stanley's flatness funny?
 - a) He can fly Stanley like a kite.
 - b) He thinks Stanley looks silly in new clothes.
 - c) He can stack books on top of Stanley.
 - d) He is happy that Stanley can't run anymore.

4. How does humor help make the story more engaging?
 - a) It makes Stanley's challenges seem worse.
 - b) It makes fun of Stanley's differences.
 - c) It makes the story more fun and enjoyable.
 - d) It confuses the reader about what's happening.

5. What lesson does humor in Flat Stanley teach?
 - a) Problems are always funny.
 - b) Being different can be fun and exciting.
 - c) People should always laugh at others.
 - d) Humor makes life more difficult.

