

Name _____

Laughing at Greed

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Dickens use humor in A Christmas Carol?
  - A. By making fun of Christmas traditions
  - B. By showing that being rich is always funny
  - C. By having the ghosts tell jokes
  - D. By exaggerating Scrooge's greed and selfishness

2. What is an example of satire in the story?
  - A. The businessmen talking about Scrooge's money instead of his death
  - B. Scrooge throwing a big Christmas party
  - C. The Cratchits being rude to Scrooge
  - D. The ghosts being afraid of Scrooge

3. How does the Ghost of Christmas Present use humor to make Scrooge reflect on his words?
  - A. By scaring him into behaving
  - B. By repeating Scrooge's own cruel words sarcastically
  - C. By making jokes about Christmas dinner
  - D. By ignoring Scrooge completely

4. Why does Dickens use humor when writing about serious issues?
  - A. To make the story entertaining while teaching a lesson
  - B. To distract readers from the main message
  - C. To show that Scrooge is a good person
  - D. To make the ghosts seem less scary

5. What is the main purpose of Dickens' humor and satire in the story?
  - A. To make fun of poor people
  - B. To show that Christmas is not important
  - C. To criticize greed and selfishness in a lighthearted way
  - D. To convince people to stop celebrating Christmas

