

Name _____

Leaders of Resistance

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was Tecumseh's main goal?

- A) To unite tribes to protect their lands
- B) To fight the Nez Perce
- C) To move his people to Canada
- D) To work with settlers

2. What was the Battle of the Little Bighorn?

- A) A fight led by Chief Joseph
- B) The final battle of Tecumseh's movement
- C) A meeting between tribes and settlers
- D) A victory for Sitting Bull and the Lakota Sioux

3. Why is Chief Joseph's journey remembered?

- A) It led to peace between settlers and Native Americans
- B) It showed his desire to avoid violence
- C) It helped Tecumseh unite tribes
- D) It was a short and easy journey

4. What happened to Sitting Bull's people after their victory at the Battle of the Little Bighorn?

- A) They won their land back
- B) They moved to Canada
- C) They were forced onto reservations
- D) They united with Tecumseh's group

5. What is one lesson we can learn from these leaders?

- A) The importance of unity and standing up for what is right
- B) That fighting always solves problems
- C) To avoid working with other groups
- D) To give up when challenges are overwhelming

