

Name _____

Leaders & Laws

Short Answer Key

1. The executive branch enforces laws and leads the government.
2. Executive orders allow presidents to make fast decisions without waiting for Congress.
3. Government agencies help citizens by protecting the environment, education, and health.
4. Some people worry that the president could use too much power without checks and balances.
5. It is hard to keep people safe while also making sure their freedoms are not taken away.

