

Name _____

Leaders & Laws

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Executive orders can help solve problems quickly, but they might also be used without approval from Congress.
2. A president's leadership affects laws, security, and how people receive government help.
3. Leaders must work together to make fair choices and represent the people.
4. I would make sure that people have freedom, but also create strong safety measures to protect them.

