

Name _____

The Case of the Stolen Left Shoes

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Detective Veronica Vance decide to take charge of the case of the stolen left shoes?

- A) She had a reputation for cracking unusual cases.
- B) She was a renowned shoe expert.
- C) She had a personal connection to the victims.
- D) She was the only available detective in town.

2. What was the common factor among the stolen shoes that raised suspicion about Mr. Cobbler?

- A) They were all right shoes.
- B) They were all made by a local shoemaker.
- C) They were all expensive designer shoes.
- D) They were all mismatched.

3. What did Veronica Vance discover when she set up surveillance cameras around Mr. Cobbler's shop?

- A) Mr. Cobbler was innocent and had an alibi.
- B) Mr. Cobbler was involved in the thefts.
- C) Mr. Cobbler was secretly running a left shoe store.
- D) The cameras malfunctioned and did not capture any useful footage.

4. Why did Mr. Cobbler steal the left shoes?

- A) To start his own left shoe collection.
- B) To sell them on the black market.
- C) He had a compulsion and obsession with left shoes.
- D) To teach the town a lesson about valuing their possessions.

5. How did Mr. Cobbler turn his obsession with left shoes into a positive endeavor?

- A) By opening a left shoe store.
- B) By starting a left shoe museum.
- C) By launching a line of left shoe fashion accessories.
- D) By organizing left shoe-themed events and auctions for charity.

