

Name _____

The Quest for the Legendary Griffin

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary, but students could describe feelings of awe, excitement, and wonder when Sarah first entered the cave. They might mention thoughts of disbelief and anticipation of what lay ahead.
2. The Griffin might have chosen to share its knowledge with Sarah because of her determination, respect for nature, and her sincere desire to learn. She demonstrated qualities of curiosity and humility.
3. Sarah's return to her village likely impacted her community by inspiring them to appreciate and protect the natural world. Villagers may have learned the importance of preserving their environment and valuing knowledge and wisdom.
4. Sarah may have learned that treasures aren't always material possessions but can be found in wisdom and the beauty of nature. These lessons may lead her to continue exploring, seeking knowledge, and sharing her experiences with others.

