

Name _____

The Legislative Journey: What Happens if a Bill Passes in One Chamber but Not the Other?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the role of committees in the legislative process?
 - a) To introduce bills in Congress
 - b) To review and debate bills related to specific areas
 - c) To cast the final vote on bills
 - d) To veto bills passed by the other chamber

2. What happens if a bill is passed in one chamber but not the other?
 - a) It becomes law automatically.
 - b) It is sent to the President for signature.
 - c) It cannot become law in its current form.
 - d) It is vetoed by the President.

3. How can a bill be amended during the legislative process?
 - a) By the President's signature
 - b) By a majority vote in both chambers
 - c) By the committee in the second chamber
 - d) By the conference committee

4. What is the purpose of a conference committee?
 - a) To introduce bills in Congress
 - b) To resolve differences between House and Senate versions of a bill
 - c) To veto bills passed by both chambers
 - d) To cast the final vote on bills

5. How can a presidential veto be overridden?
 - a) By a majority vote in both chambers
 - b) By the conference committee's approval
 - c) By a simple majority vote in the Senate
 - d) By a two-thirds majority vote in both chambers

