

Name _____

Leo's View

Short Answer Key

1. At first, Leo admired Stargirl's uniqueness, but when the school turned against her, he wanted her to fit in. Later, he regretted asking her to change.
2. Leo was afraid of being judged by his classmates and wanted to be accepted by them.
3. When Stargirl changed, she lost what made her special, and the students still didn't accept her.
4. Because Leo is the narrator, the reader experiences both his admiration and his struggle to accept Stargirl's differences.
5. Leo learns that trying to change someone to fit in isn't fair and that true identity should be celebrated.

