

Name _____

Lessons from the Past

Short Answer Key

1. History's pages are described as turning in the Tanka poem.
2. According to the poem, we learn lessons from the past.
3. The poem suggests that we need unity and empathy to shape a bright future.
4. Learning from the past is emphasized as important in the poem.
5. Unity and empathy are mentioned as necessary qualities for shaping a bright future.

