

Name _____

Adventures in Books: A Day in the Life of a Librarian

Short Answer Key

1. The primary responsibility of a Librarian is to promote reading, assist library patrons, and maintain the library's collection.
2. One important skill that Librarians need to have is organizational skills.
3. A Librarian might organize and maintain the library's collection in the afternoon.
4. Research skills are important for Librarians because they help patrons find information and conduct research effectively.
5. Librarians promote a love for reading among library visitors by leading storytime sessions, hosting book club meetings, and providing reading recommendations.

