

Name _____

The Mysterious Case of the Vanishing Library Books

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Margaret's initial observations at the library included noticing that books disappeared only during Mr. Jenkins' lunch breaks, which sparked her curiosity about the mystery.
2. Margaret exhibited qualities such as curiosity, determination, and keen observation skills that made her a successful detective.
3. The book-sharing club was significant because it revealed the community's love for reading and their desire to share books with others. It brought people together through literature and added depth to the town's culture.
4. If I were a resident of Oakwood, I would contribute to the book-sharing club by leaving my favorite books in public places for others to discover, fostering a love for reading and building a sense of community through shared stories.

