

Name _____

The Life Cycle of a Leopard

Short Answer Key

1. Leopard cubs are born blind and rely completely on their mother.
2. Leopard mothers keep their cubs in a den to protect them from predators.
3. Cubs start learning how to hunt at around six months old.
4. Young leopards leave their mother to become independent and establish their own territory.
5. Older leopards survive by using their hunting and climbing skills.

