

Name _____

The Amazing Circulatory System: Your Body's Lifeline

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary function of red blood cells in the circulatory system?
 - a) Fighting off infections
 - b) Carrying oxygen to cells
 - c) Forming clots
 - d) Regulating body temperature

2. Which type of blood vessel carries oxygen-rich blood away from the heart to all parts of the body?
 - a) Arteries
 - b) Veins
 - c) Capillaries
 - d) Platelets

3. What is the role of white blood cells in the circulatory system?
 - a) Carrying oxygen to cells
 - b) Forming clots
 - c) Fighting off harmful invaders
 - d) Regulating body temperature

4. Which component of blood is responsible for forming clots to stop bleeding?
 - a) Red blood cells
 - b) White blood cells
 - c) Plasma
 - d) Platelets

5. What is the main function of capillaries in the circulatory system?
 - a) Carrying oxygen-rich blood away from the heart
 - b) Fighting off infections
 - c) Allowing the exchange of oxygen, nutrients, and waste products with body cells
 - d) Regulating body temperature

