

Name _____

The Light of Understanding

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker's perspective changes to one of embracing the mysteries and lessons of life with wonder and clarity.
2. The speaker describes life's journey as a winding stream filled with lessons and wonders.
3. The speaker feels positive about embracing the unknown and mysteries of life.
4. The comparison to "morning's dew" suggests that the epiphany was fresh, clear, and transformative.
5. The poem conveys the message that embracing uncertainty and finding understanding in the unknown can bring clarity and purpose to one's life.

