The Secret of the Lost Lighthouse

Short Answer Key

1. The abandoned lighthouse had cobwebs, creaky stairs, and a musty, old smell. It was located on desolate cliffs overlooking the rocky shore.
2. Captain Nathaniel's spirit revealed that the hidden treasure could only be unearthed by solving a series of riddles related to the town's maritime history.
3. The ultimate outcome of the friends' adventure was that they lifted the curse on the lighthouse, found the hidden treasure, and helped Captain Nathaniel's spirit find peace.
4. The friends realized that the real treasure was not the riches they found but the knowledge they gained about their town's history and the strengthened bond of their friendship.
5. The story conveys that exploring history and preserving heritage can lead to valuable discoveries and a deeper connection to one's community. It emphasizes the idea that knowledge of the past is a treasure in itself.
