

Name _____

The Secret of the Lost Lighthouse

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The friends decided to explore the Beacon of Legends because of their sense of curiosity and the possibility of uncovering hidden treasures. They wanted to test the truth behind the rumors.
2. As the friends solved each riddle and weakened the curse, the lighthouse's atmosphere likely changed from a spooky and eerie one to a more peaceful and inviting environment.
3. The friends likely felt a sense of accomplishment, satisfaction, and fulfillment when they lifted the curse and helped Captain Nathaniel's spirit find peace. They had not only solved a mystery but also made a positive impact on the spirit's eternal rest.
4. The story teaches us that exploring and preserving local history and heritage can lead to personal growth, valuable discoveries, and a stronger sense of connection to one's community. It highlights the idea that the past holds treasures of knowledge and stories that enrich our present lives.

