Cracking the Code: Deciphering Common Tennis Lingo

Short Answer Key

1. A "deuce" in tennis occurs when both players or teams have a tied score of 40-40 in a game.
2. A "drop shot" is a soft and delicate shot played close to the net, often used as a surprise tactic to catch the opponent off guard.
3. "Advantage" in tennis is the point following deuce, where a player has the opportunity to win the game on the next point.
4. A "let" may be called during a tennis match when the serve touches the net but still lands in the opponent's service box.
5. The phrase "Game, set, match" signifies the final result of a tennis match, indicating the winner of the entire contest.
