

Name _____

Unlocking the Literary Devices in 'Fahrenheit 451'

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What literary device is used to describe Montag's realization that he is "full of bits and pieces"?
 - a) Imagery
 - b) Symbolism
 - c) Simile
 - d) Foreshadowing

2. What does the title "Fahrenheit 451" allude to in the novel?
 - a) The boiling point of water
 - b) The temperature at which paper burns
 - c) The ideal room temperature
 - d) The temperature of the sun

3. What literary device is employed when Montag's wife, Mildred, is described as "like a body displayed on the lid of a tomb"?
 - a) Irony
 - b) Metaphor
 - c) Repetition
 - d) Personification

4. How does Bradbury use foreshadowing in the novel?
 - a) To create suspense and surprise the reader
 - b) To hint at events or developments to come
 - c) To describe the setting in detail
 - d) To provide backstory about the characters

5. Which literary device is used to emphasize the disconnect between appearance and reality in the society depicted in "Fahrenheit 451"?
 - a) Imagery
 - b) Irony
 - c) Symbolism
 - d) Allusion

