

Name _____

Exploring Literary Devices in 'Lord of the Flies'

Short Answer

1. How does the conch shell change in meaning and significance as the story progresses?
2. Provide an example of dramatic irony from "Lord of the Flies."
3. How does dialogue help reveal the evolving dynamics among the boys, especially between Ralph and Jack?
4. Explain how the island's imagery contributes to the reader's understanding of the story's setting and atmosphere.
5. What broader human qualities and conflicts do the characters Ralph and Jack represent in the allegorical aspect of the novel?

