

Name _____

Living Letters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Chicka Chicka Boom Boom bring the letters to life?
 - a) By making them talk and act like people.
 - b) By turning them into animals.
 - c) By changing their colors.
 - d) By keeping them still and quiet.

2. What action shows that the letters behave like children?
 - a) They sit still in a book.
 - b) They race, climb, and fall like kids playing.
 - c) They do math problems.
 - d) They disappear when they fall.

3. Why do uppercase letters appear in the story?
 - a) To help the lowercase letters after they fall.
 - b) To climb the tree next.
 - c) To teach the letters a lesson.
 - d) To take the coconut tree away.

4. What happens when too many letters climb the tree?
 - a) The tree disappears.
 - b) The letters jump off safely.
 - c) The tree gets too heavy, and the letters fall.
 - d) The letters build a house.

5. Why does personification make the story fun for kids?
 - a) It teaches math instead of reading.
 - b) It helps kids write their own stories.
 - c) It changes the way letters look.
 - d) It makes letters behave like real people.

