

Name _____

Bangladesh: A World of Geography and Local Wonders

Short Answer Key

1. The Ganges, Brahmaputra, or Meghna.
2. The Chittagong Hill Tracts have a hilly terrain and lush forests.
3. Rice, jute, and tea are commonly grown in the Ganges Delta.
4. The Barind Plateau has a drier climate.
5. Rivers in Bangladesh are important for transportation as they provide navigable waterways for boats and ships, facilitating the movement of people and goods.

