

Name _____

The Lost Identity

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Emily likely felt a range of emotions when she discovered the hidden room and realized the truth about the criminals who raised her. She may have felt shock, fear, betrayal, and confusion. The revelation likely shattered her previous perception of her "family."
2. Emily's decision to investigate the criminals' activities may have been driven by her growing suspicion and a desire to uncover the truth about her upbringing. She may have felt a strong need to understand her past and the people who had raised her.
3. Officer Harris demonstrated kindness and support to Emily by actively helping her during her escape and assisting her in exposing the criminals' activities. He kept his promise to help her find her true family and ensure justice was served.
4. After being reunited with her real family, Emily's life likely changed dramatically. She would have experienced a sense of belonging and love that she had been missing for years. Emotions such as happiness, relief, and gratitude would have dominated her feelings during the reunion.

