

Name _____

Love Tested: An Elderly Couple's Tragedy

Short Answer Key

1. James reacted by becoming Margaret's constant caregiver and companion, providing emotional support and tending to her needs.
2. Margaret's illness progressed to the point where she became confined to a wheelchair due to her declining physical condition.
3. The bond between James and Margaret remained strong during her illness, with James providing unwavering support and love.
4. The final outcome for Margaret was her peaceful passing away.
5. James felt a profound emptiness and grief after Margaret's passing, missing her deeply.

