

Name _____

Attack of the Mutant Lunch Ladies

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Sam decided to challenge Lunchzilla when he saw the chaos in the cafeteria and realized that someone needed to stand up to the mutant lunch ladies. Sam showed bravery by taking action despite the danger, using whatever items were at hand to confront the threat.
2. If I were a student in the cafeteria during the attack, I would have tried to alert the school staff or called for help, ensuring the safety of my fellow students. I would also have followed any evacuation procedures if necessary.
3. Mr. Jenkins' role as the janitor changed from an ordinary position to that of a hero by using his quick thinking and resourcefulness to defeat the mutant lunch ladies and save the school. He displayed courage, ingenuity, and a willingness to protect others.
4. This story conveys the message that remaining calm and resourceful in the face of unexpected challenges can lead to successful problem-solving. It teaches us that in real-life situations, being adaptable and thinking on our feet can help us overcome obstacles and emerge as heroes in our own right.

