

Name _____

Lymph Nodes: The Guardians of Your Health

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of lymph nodes in the lymphatic system?
  - a) Pumping lymph throughout the body
  - b) Filtering lymph and detecting invaders
  - c) Producing red blood cells
  - d) Storing excess nutrients

2. Where are lymph nodes commonly found in the body?
  - a) Inside the lungs
  - b) In the brain
  - c) In the neck, armpits, groin, and abdomen
  - d) In the stomach

3. What are the specialized white blood cells found in lymph nodes?
  - a) Platelets
  - b) Lymphocytes
  - c) Red blood cells
  - d) Neurons

4. Why might a lymph node become swollen and tender?
  - a) Because it's a normal part of their function
  - b) When they're not functioning properly
  - c) As a sign that the body is fighting off an infection or threat
  - d) When they are empty of lymph

5. What do lymphocytes produce to help the immune system recognize invaders?
  - a) Antibodies
  - b) Nutrients
  - c) Red blood cells
  - d) Lymphatic vessels

