

Name _____

The Magic of Books

Short Answer

1. How do books serve as "windows into the minds of others," as mentioned in the poem?
2. What does the poem mean when it says books are "mirrors that reflect our own experiences"?
3. Give an example of how a book can be a mentor, according to the poem.
4. In your own words, explain why books are referred to as "the bridges that connect us to the wisdom of humanity."
5. How have books ignited your passions or shaped your perspectives? Provide an example.

