

Name _____

The Magic of Calculus

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is calculus primarily concerned with?
 - A) Studying ancient civilizations
 - B) Understanding change
 - C) Memorizing multiplication tables
 - D) Exploring outer space

2. How does calculus help us in everyday life?
 - A) By predicting the weather
 - B) By solving complex puzzles
 - C) By brewing coffee
 - D) By making perfect cereal pours

3. In what fields is calculus commonly used?
 - A) Medicine and law
 - B) Art and music
 - C) Science and engineering
 - D) Cooking and gardening

4. What analogy is used to describe calculus in the passage?
 - A) A magic carpet
 - B) A treasure map
 - C) A mystery novel
 - D) A computer program

5. What does the passage suggest about the importance of calculus?
 - A) It's the key to unlocking the mysteries of the universe
 - B) It's only important for scientists
 - C) It's useful for making friends
 - D) It's outdated and no longer relevant

