Paradise Found: A Journey to the Maldives

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Maldives is often described as a paradise because of its stunning natural beauty, including turquoise waters, white sandy beaches, and vibrant marine life. The clear waters, coral reefs, and luxurious resorts contribute to its reputation.
2. If I were staying in an overwater bungalow in the Maldives, I would like to see colorful fish and maybe even a sea turtle through the glass floor panel. It would be like having a personal aquarium and a direct connection to the underwater world.
3. It is important to protect coral reefs and marine life in the Maldives because they are vital ecosystems that support biodiversity. Coral reefs provide habitat for countless species, and marine life contributes to the livelihoods of local communities. To help with conservation efforts, people can support sustainable tourism, reduce plastic pollution, and participate in coral reef restoration projects.
4. I would choose to experience snorkeling and diving in the Maldives because it allows you to explore the incredible underwater world, encounter marine creatures, and witness the beauty of coral reefs. It's an adventure filled with wonder and excitement.
