

Name _____

The Epic Mall Adventure

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you were in the narrator's place, how would you have reacted when you discovered the inflatable obstacle course at the mall? Would you have formed a team and participated in the competition? Why or why not?
2. How do you think this unexpected mall adventure strengthened the bond between the narrator and their friends?
3. What challenges and opportunities might come with winning a year's supply of pizza from Tony's Pizzeria?
4. In your view, what does this story teach us about the excitement and unpredictability of spending time with friends and embracing unexpected adventures?

