

Name _____

The Great Mix-Up at Maplewood Elementary

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the role of mistaken identities and mix-ups in the story. How did they lead to humorous and chaotic situations, and what lessons can be learned from these mix-ups?
2. If you were one of the students caught up in the mix-up, how would you have reacted to the chaos? What funny or unexpected situations do you think might have occurred because of the mix-up?
3. Imagine you were the principal of Maplewood Elementary. How would you have handled the mix-up and its impact on the school day? What measures might you take to prevent such mix-ups in the future?
4. Consider the idea that sometimes unexpected events, like mistaken identities, can lead to memorable and enjoyable experiences. Have you ever experienced a mix-up or unexpected turn of events that turned out to be fun or amusing? Describe that experience and how it made you feel.

