

Name _____

The Great Mix-Up at Maplewood Elementary

Short Answer Key

1. The mix-up in Mrs. Henderson's class occurred when two students named Sam, Sam Reynolds, and Sam Mitchell, were assigned as partners for a science experiment. This led to confusion and humorous situations as they worked together.
2. During lunchtime, the cafeteria staff mistakenly gave Sam Reynolds a salad instead of a sandwich, while Sam Mitchell received a sandwich with peanut butter, which Sam Reynolds had a peanut allergy to. They ended up swapping their meals, leading to laughter and chaos in the cafeteria.
3. The mix-up during recess resulted in both Sams playing on the same soccer team. Their teammates couldn't distinguish between them, creating comical confusion on the field.
4. During the science experiment, Lily and Patrick's mix-up led to colorful eruptions as Patrick accidentally mixed the chemicals incorrectly.
5. By the end of the day, the students felt that the mix-up had made the school day fun and filled with laughter. They shared this sentiment with Mrs. Henderson.
